Our mandate is to co-create a culture of peace using an arts based, intergenerational and holistic approach that cultivates ecological, social and spiritual resilience with the individual and the community. We centre the voices of BIPOC communities to co-create imaginative solutions for equitable and fair futures for all.

Our flagship program Peace Camp provides opportunities for children and youth to work with professional artists to create public presentations that speak to the issues impacting their lives, while learning skills in Conflict Transformation.

About Peace Camp:

Every summer Children's Peace Theatre (CPT) produces Peace Camp, a three-week day camp for 30 children aged 8-13, plus up to 30 additional professional theatre artists, junior guides (13-17), guides (18+), and Elders.

Located in our Taylor-Massey Creek forest retreat, Peace Camp involves the creation, rehearsal, and production of an original and stunning performance. The work is devised from the stories and imagination of the child campers based on a chosen theme that captures what's resonating for our communities. In the final week there are two public performances, including a popular and well-attended gala presentation.
