

Application for Bursary

Bursary Requested for: Peace Camp 2017

Referred by (if applicable): _____

The Children's Peace Theatre understands that the diverse and often marginalized communities served by the organization contribute to the growth, enrichment and strength of Children's Peace Theatre and looks to provide safer space for these communities to access. We acknowledge the fact that certain groups in our communities often encounter barriers to full access and participation because of racism and oppression. The Children's Peace Theatre is committed, and currently manifesting policy that ensures a dedication to providing a creative space that takes preventative measures to allow for safer space for marginalized communities, and appropriately deals with instances of racism and oppression.

Therefore we will make every effort to ensure that no child will miss the opportunity to participate in camp due to inability to pay the full program costs. We have a limited amount of funds available to assist families in need of financial support with their program registration fees.

Please complete this application in addition to the regular camp registration form to be considered for a subsidy.

Bursaries will be distributed on a first come basis. Make sure you get your application early.

Families will receive a partial subsidy up to $350 based on financial need as per our sliding scale, as well as our evaluation of how much the child will benefit from attendance at Peace Camp.

*Please note you may be required to submit proof of financial need, such as Income Tax return forms, paystubs showing annual income, etc.
